Celebrating Difference

Character Virtue
Respect

Focus Question: Can I show empathy when difference causes conflict or celebration?

Key Vocabulary

respect	Valuing and treating everyone fairly.
culture	Ways of life, traditions and beliefs.
racism	Unfair treatment because of race.
empathy	Understanding how others may feel.
bullying	Repeated behaviour that hurts someone.
rumour	A story shared without knowing if it is true.
stereotype	An unfair fixed idea about a group.

Key Learning

- I can respect people whose lives are different from mine.
- I understand cultural differences can cause conflict.
- I can recognise racism and explain why it is wrong.
- I know name-calling and rumour-spreading can be bullying.
- I can compare children's lives without making stereotypes.

Learning in Action

Respect cultures

Ask questions rather than judging differences.

Challenge racism

Racist words and actions are never acceptable.

Avoid stereotypes

Children in the same country can live very differently.

Remember and Try

- ✓ Learn about other cultures with curiosity.
- ✓ Challenge name-calling, rumours and racist behaviour.
- ✓ Remember that one story does not represent everyone.

End Point

I can show empathy and respect, challenge racism and bullying, and avoid assumptions about people from different cultures.
