Focus Question: How can I show empathy and challenge discrimination?

Key Vocabulary

discrimination	Treating someone unfairly because of who they are.
prejudice	An unfair opinion formed in advance.
empathy	Understanding another person's feelings.
stereotype	An assumption about a group of people.
bullying	Repeated behaviour that hurts someone.
power	The ability to influence or control others.
banter	Teasing that may hurt or upset someone.
disability	A condition that may affect everyday activities.

Key Learning

- I can identify discrimination and explain why it is wrong.
- I can question ideas about what is "normal".
- I can explain how different lives shape experiences.
- I can recognise when power is used to hurt others.
- I know why people might use bullying behaviours.
- I can celebrate the achievements of disabled people.

Learning in Action

Challenge prejudice

Do not judge people by what seems different.

Recognise bullying

Secrets, threats and "banter" can be harmful.

Celebrate achievement

Paralympians show skill and determination.

Remember and Try

- Listen to experiences different from my own.
- Speak up and seek support about bullying.
- Notice strengths rather than stereotypes.

End Point

I can challenge discrimination, show empathy, explain bullying and power, and celebrate the achievements of people with disabilities.
