

Recruitment Monitoring

ODBST operates a Diversity Policy and is committed to appointing the best candidate, on the basis of their ability to do the job. The Codes of Practice published by the Equal Opportunities Commission and the Commission for Racial Equality advise employers to monitor the outcome of selection decisions to ensure that discrimination does not occur within our recruitment and selection process.

The information you give is confidential and is used for monitoring purposes only.

Disability

A disabled person is defined under the Equality Act 2010 as someone with a 'physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on that person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.'

Do you consider yourself to have a disability? Yes/No/Prefer not to say

If yes, what is the nature of your disability?

We are working to implement a Guaranteed Interview Scheme for Disabled People. This means we will guarantee to interview all applicants with disabilities who meet the essential criteria for a vacant post. You can choose to take part in the guaranteed interview scheme by indicating that you have a disability and the manager who is recruiting you will be advised accordingly. If you do not wish the recruiting manager to know that you have a disability, (and therefore do not wish to take part in the scheme) please indicate this on your application form.

Do you wish to take part in this scheme? Yes/No

Please state any particular arrangements that you need should you be invited for interview.

If you are currently employed by ODBST, please indicate that you are an internal applicant. Otherwise please choose external.

Internal/External

What is your sexual orientation?

We want to ensure that all applicants are treated equally whatever their sexual orientation. To do this we need to know about the sexual orientation of people who apply to join us. We should therefore be grateful if you would complete the following question. Your answer will be treated in the strictest confidence and will not affect your job application in any way.
