

English

Today's English is all about fronted adverbials. A fronted adverbial is a words or phrases at the beginning of a sentence that describes the action that follows. We often use a comma after a fronted adverbial to separate it from the main clause. For example:

After the storm, the people of the town cleared up the flooding.

Watch this short video to explain what a fronted adverbial is:

Complete this activity in your book:

Give each of these sentences a fronted adverbial.

1. _____ the baby began to cry.
2. _____ the young boy changed into his PE kit.
3. _____ the mountains stood watching over the valley.
4. _____ Veronica blew out the candles on her birthday cake.
5. _____ Jason crossed the finishing line of the marathon.
6. _____ Imran went on the ghost train at the fair.
7. _____ Fiona stepped on stage to sing in front of the judges.

Now print out and complete the London Marathon fronted adverbial writing task.

Maths

We are continuing to use the White Rose videos and resources to support your learning this week. Remember, there is a slight change to how this works. The video is available on the White Rose website but the worksheet will have to be downloaded from the school website. There are also additional resources available from the BBC Bitesize website that will match the learning.

Make sure to watch the video first then have a go at activity.
