Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you so much for your fantastic generosity that you have shown this week. We were overwhelmed at the response to the Bags 2 School appeal, which at least doubled that of the donations from last year! We have also been so inundated by Harvest donations for the Food Bank, that they are currently taking up much of the entrance hall! Your kindness is greatly appreciated.

I wanted to let you know about a couple of new initiatives that we are introducing this week. The first is the reinstatement of our 'Behaviour Bears – Adam and Eve' these were a firm favourite of our classes before Covid, and I am certain that they will be again! There is one for KS1 and another for KS2 and the class with the highest attendance each week will get to care for the bears! We will also be bringing back 100% attendance stickers for those children in each half term who have managed to achieve full attendance. We understand that sometimes this is not achievable for all children, however we do feel that incentives for attendance are essential, as we need to ensure that (as much as is possible) all children are in school every day. Please note that we cannot make exceptions for this as otherwise (as I am sure you can appreciate) the whole system becomes unmanageable.

The second new initiative is for behaviour. We want to reward those children who always go 'above and beyond' in their behaviour choices, both in the classroom and on the playground. Therefore, from next week, children will be awarded 'Golden Tickets' in our weekly achievement assembly. Please make sure to keep these safe as when a child achieves ten of these special certificates, they will become a 'Behaviour Champion' and be entitled to wear a special badge on their uniform.

BEHAVIOUR CHAMPION

Have a wonderful weekend and I will see you all again next week!
