A Loving Place, Where we CARE, Learn and Grow Together

We have been so thrilled to announce the outcome of our recent OFSTED inspection! Thank you so much for all of the positive and warm feedback that we have received both on our social media accounts and on the gate each morning. It has been so fantastic to feel and experience the warmth of this wonderful school community.

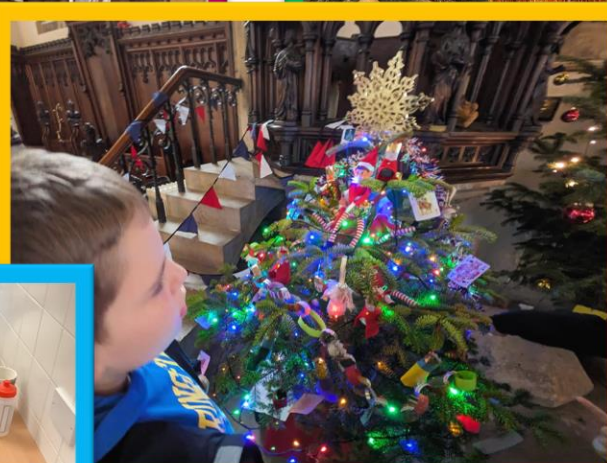

The response to our Christmas Fayre last week was also overwhelming, with queues before we started and standing room only in the hall! This level of support was more than we dared to hope for when we set up the PTA, so thank you so much for supporting us in such a wholehearted way. It is genuinely and greatly appreciated. This has been a very busy week, with lots of events and activities taking place in school, therefore I will share photos below of some of my standout moments – from an incredible week.

Have a lovely weekend
