Year 3

English

Today is a reading lesson based on Charlie Changes into a Chicken by Sam Copeland. It is on the BBC Bitesize page. You will have a part of the story read to you then you will get an extract to read to yourself. You will then need to answer some questions based on the story.

Maths

Today you have a challenge that will use a range of your maths skills. The challenge is on the White Rose website. The questions that will be best for year 3 are also noted on the website. However, you can have a go at some of the other questions as well to challenge yourself.

Art

The learning today can be accessed via BBC Bitesize it is all about drawing and painting. When you have finished we would love you to send us some pictures of what you have created.
